MSGR. STEVEN ZAK TAKES LEAVE OF ABSENCE

As Msgr. Steven Zak announced at all Masses last week-end, he has requested, and the Archdiocese has granted him a leave of absence from his duties as Pastor of Incarnation Parish.

As Msgr. Zak noted in his statement, he is taking leave to address personal issues that include an inappropriate use of social media that involved engaging in improper chats on an adult social media platform. His actions did not involve personal interactions. The parish has no other information concerning the matter.

In Msgr. Zak's immediate absence, Fr. Sam Ward has been assigned as Administrator Pro Tem, which means he will temporarily take on the duties of Pastor, until other arrangements are made. Fr. Ward is the Vocations Director for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, and he resides at Holy Family Parish in Glendale. Fr. Ward will be assisted by Fr. O'Brien, Deacon Pontrelli, Deacon Harutunian, Msgr. Hefner and our parish and school current staff to meet the pastoral and administrative needs of the parish.

Msgr. Zak has asked for our prayers and assured us of his prayers for the parish community.
